

Mr. Goldsborough, of Talbot, submitted the following message :

By the Senate,

March 1st, 1860.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message in reference to the proceeding to the election of United States Senator, and concur therein, and propose to go into said election at 2 o'clock, P. M., this day.

We nominate on the part of the Senate the Hon. James A. Pearce and James U. Dennis.

Also, your message in reference to the election of Bank Directors as to the several Banks of this State.

We nominate on the part of the Senate as a Director for the Bank of Baltimore, Richard H. Mitchell. For Directors in the Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore, John Hoffman and Samuel W. Briscoe. For Directors in the Easton Bank, James D. Martin and Levin T. H. Irving. For Director in the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, James C. Parker.

We have nominated Messrs. ——— to unite with the gentlemen named by your House to carry out the objects of this message.

By order,

W. KILGOUR,

Secretary.

Mr. Smith moved to refer the message from the House in relation to an election of United States Senator, and the answer to it, to the Committee on the Constitution ;

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Bradley,	Dashiell,	Smith,
Goldsborough, of	Kimmel,	Whitaker,
Dorchester,	Nuttle,	Yellott—8.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Brooke, Pt.,	Gardiner,	Lynch,
Blackiston,	Goldsborough, of	McKaig,
Duvall,	Talbot,	Miles,
Franklin,	Heckart,	Watkins—11.

So the Senate rejected the motion.

Mr. Smith offered the following as a substitute for the message as submitted by Mr. Goldsborough, of Talbot :
